Terms and Fees

Guinea Pigs in boarding receive a high quality timothy based pellet and unlimited Timothy hay as the staple diet. Other small animals or special diets, please provide pellets. Fresh foods are given in a CA:PA ratio in a mixed variety, but not limited to:

red leaf, green leaf, romaine, endive, escole, swiss chard, spinach, green or red peppers, cucumber, carrot, roma tomatoes, parsley, cilantro, baby spring boxed mix, and more.

Fruits (treats) are given once a night and are about the size of a cranberry, 2 per piggy. These may include : watermelon, blueberry, cranberry, strawberry, mango, pineapple, apple, kiwi, or cantelope.

All Guinea Pigs and Ferrets are bedded on fleece and cleaned twice daily, other animals are on case by case basis. Owner of animals will not be held responsible for any damage animal causes to fleece bedding.

Owner must state any known health problem of any animal being boarded and provide any needed medicine that needs to be administered. If able, please have amount pre-measured in syringes and sealed in a ziplock bag labeled with the pets name/medicine name/dosing information.

Syringe feeding needs: please provide any needed critical care or special foods.

Maximum animals per cage that live in harmony together in a cage: 3

Accommodations can be made for larger herds that live together, please contact for availability and size needs.

Daily fees are $10.00 per day per 2 occupant cage. Weekly fees are $55.00 per 2 occupant cage and required at time (or before) animals are left in boarding care.

Owners who do not pick up their animals on specified date above without a notice of change via phone call, text message, or email will:

a) be required to pay the daily rate.

b) after 3 days without notice, your pets and your name, address, and phone number may be turned over to animal control officials. Any occurring costs due to this will be solely your responsibility. No persons may be held responsible if any pet is euthanized after turned over to animal control.

Risk of loss or illness

I do my best to prevent any losses or illness and act quickly when a problem is discovered, however despite best efforts, illnesses sometimes happen. As the owner of animal(s) in boarding, you hold independent boarding contractor (Becky Hines) harmless of any illness or loss while in her care. In the event of any illnesses, you will be notified. If you cannot be reached within a reasonable amount of time and veterinarian care needs to be sought before health deteriorates to greatly, please provide credit card information on next page OR the name of a veterinary office you have made prior arrangements with in the event of an emergency.
